FOREWORD

Will the Roosevelt Administration withstand the acid test of facts? This book replies to that question by answering others.

Answers to questions contained herein are largely from official sources, and in every instance are believed to be accurate.

The author and his co-authors concede that some of the facts presented are subject to interpretation as both favorable and unfavorable to the Administration. Nevertheless, they are facts. Authority for any statement may be secured by writing the author in care of the publisher of this book, enclosing ten cents in stamps and a stamped return envelope.

BUSINESS

Q. What was the "breathing spell"?
A. The assurance by President Roosevelt that he would permit business a temporary respite from new regulation and legislation.

Q. How does the construction of new houses in 1935 compare with 1929?
A. Residential construction in 1935 was about 17 per cent of 1929.

Q. What is the Washington address of Professor Tugwell's Resettlement Administration?
A. It is located in 27 different buildings in Washington.

Q. How does industrial production under the Roosevelt Administration compare with foreign countries?
A. March 1935 percentage of 1929 industrial production was: U. S. 74.8; Canada 79.4; Germany 87.2; Great Britain 103.8; Japan 132.5.

Q. Has private business paid out more money than earned?
A. In five years of depression, private business paid out $26,631,000,000 more than income, for wages, materials, dividends, interest and taxes.
Q. In how many fields of private business does the Roosevelt Administration compete?

Q. How much is the Roosevelt Administration spending for federal power projects?
A. Estimated $1,073,302,000. Some of this cost will be chargeable to irrigation.

Q. How many TVA employees receive more than $5000 a year?
A. 89.

Q. How much will the TVA construction cost the American people?
A. Estimated $265,000,000.

Q. Will the TVA power plants be paid for by the people who use the power?
A. No. The plants are constructed from federal funds collected from all taxpayers.

Q. Have the Antitrust laws ever been waived?
A. NRA codes provided for waiver of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Q. What was the "Erler NRA case"?
A. Because of ailment, Miss Ada Erler's physician advised 1½ hours for lunch. Under NRA her employer was liable to criminal prosecution if he gave more than an hour. Employer J. A. Ochs asked NRA permission November 16, 1934, and received it January 4, 1935.
Q. What is meant by the statement: "God and the Supreme Court saved the New Deal"?
A. The charge that if the Supreme Court had not invalidated the NRA it would have completely collapsed, and that the drought of 1934 saved AAA from complete failure.

Q. Did the NRA bring increased industrial production?
A. Professor Garfield V. Cox, University of Chicago, said: "The four months drop in industrial production which followed the introduction of the NRA has been equaled only by the panic collapses of 1893 and 1907. The advance which has followed the Schechter decision against NRA is the broadest and best sustained rise of recovery to date."

Q. Was there an increase or decrease in freight carloadings after the Supreme Court declared the NRA unconstitutional?
A. Freight carloading index was 61.5 for last month of NRA. Six months later it was 66.

Q. Did industrial activity increase or decrease with the collapse of NRA?
A. Department of Commerce index of industrial activity for last month of NRA was 78.4. Six months later it was 90.5.

Q. How many codes were written under the NRA?
A. 602. 557 were basic codes. Also 190 supplements and 838 amendments.
Q. What conclusion was made by the Brookings Institution on the NRA?
A. The final chapter of a Brookings publication says:
"The conclusion indicated by this résumé is that the NRA on the whole retarded recovery. To what extent it was detrimental no one can say with much assurance."

Q. Was there any limitation on President Roosevelt in the formation of NRA codes?
A. The President could change these codes, rewrite them, reject them, as he saw fit. They then assumed the force of law, of course within the wide limitations of the act creating NRA.

Q. When did the Supreme Court hold the NRA unconstitutional?
A. May 27, 1935.

Q. What was the "dead chicken" case?
A. This is the same as the Schechter case, in which the Supreme Court found the NRA unconstitutional.

Q. What is meant by the "Little NRA"?
A. This refers to the Guffey Coal bill, which establishes the principles of NRA in the coal business.

Q. How much has the Roosevelt Administration cost the country?
A. The Administration will have spent approximately $24,100,000,000 in 1934, 1935 and 1936.
Q. What is the Ellenbogen bill?
A. This is a federal measure designed to establish the principles of NRA in the textile industry.

Q. Is the United States government in the business of manufacturing rum?
A. Yes. In the Virgin Islands.

Q. Does President Roosevelt have the power to raise or lower tariffs?
A. He can change them 50 per cent.

Q. Does the American businessman have an opportunity to be heard in opposition to the reduction of tariffs?
A. The reciprocal treaties are negotiated in absolute secrecy, and while a businessman may enter a protest, he has no way of knowing what negotiations are being made.

Q. Can President Roosevelt negotiate treaties without ratification by the Senate?
A. The Democratic Congress gave him the power to negotiate trade agreements with foreign countries.

Q. What is meant by “reciprocal trade agreement”?
A. President Roosevelt has absolute power to enter into agreements with foreign nations to reduce our tariffs in return for trade concessions. These are the reciprocal trade agreements.
Q. How do wages in England compare with those in this country?
A. Wages in England are lower by about one third.

Q. Has President Roosevelt reduced the tariff on lumber?
A. Under Canadian treaty the tariff on wood strips was reduced $2.00 per 1000 feet. This was a 50 per cent reduction. Certain other tariffs were proportionately reduced.

Q. What portion of the morning newspaper stock comes from abroad?
A. About one half of the paper stock is imported.

Q. Does the Roosevelt Administration favor public ownership of the Federal Reserve banks?
A. Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau publicly declared himself to be in favor of this.

Q. How many persons are normally employed in the manufacturing industries?
A. According to W. J. Cameron, Ford Motor Company, 8,800,000.

Q. Has Walter E. Spahr, Professor of Economics, New York University, expressed an opinion about New Deal spending?
A. On April 5, 1935, he said: "All the evidence I have seen regarding the wisdom of attempting to induce business recovery and solve the unemployment problem by a program of public construction would seem to show that the program is a failure and constitutes a real danger to recovery."

36 Q. Has the HOLC collected all money due from loans?
A. 70 per cent of these loans were delinquent on due date, 18 per cent were delinquent more than ninety days on interest, and 26 per cent were delinquent more than ninety days on principal.—March 1936.

37 Q. By how many persons has President Roosevelt increased the federal pay roll?
A. April 1933 to April 1936 increase was 255,479, exclusive of relief employees. 1,089,639 are now employed, including military.

38 Q. Is it true that a CCC worker received a check for $250,000 when the government owed him only $36?
A. Ray Williams, CCC worker in Sequoia National Park, received a relief check for $250,000.22 in the envelope which should have contained his pay check.

39 Q. What government agency has been lending money to units of a holding company President Roosevelt has attacked?
A. The Rural Electrification Administration makes loans to operating companies of the Associated Gas and Electric Company.

40 Q. What is the "Reedsville fiasco"?
A. The Roosevelt Administration set up 190 ready-built houses at Reedsville, West Virginia; some did not fit the foundations, others had to be rebuilt. The taxpayers' loss estimated at about $3000 on each house.

Q. Who said: "We must merge; we must consolidate subdivisions of Government; we must abolish useless offices"?
A. Mr Roosevelt, campaign speech, Chicago.

Q. How many new bureaus have been created by the Roosevelt Administration?
A. Approximately 100.

Q. What official titles are given to the assistants of Professor Tugwell in the Resettlement Administration?
A. There are: 7 Assistant Administrators, 1 Assistant to the Administrator, 1 Assistant to the Assistant Administrator, 4 Special Assistants to the Administrator, 1 Executive Assistant, 1 Assistant to the Executive Assistant.

Q. Who made the charge that Professor Tugwell's Resettlement Administration sent 1400 checks to persons in Wyoming who did not seek them?
A. Senator Robert D. Carey, of Wyoming, on April 10, 1936.

Q. Who sponsored legislation making possible the construction of Tugwelltown?
A. Professor Rexford Tugwell.

Q. Who said, "The tremendous tax burden makes it almost certain that the young man and the young
A woman of today will find it practically impossible to build up any reasonable competence for his or her old age”?

47

Q. What is “Tugwelltown”?
A. This is a community being built near Washington, D. C., from government funds, by Professor Rexford Tugwell, through the Resettlement Administration. The official name is “Green Belt.”

48

Q. What are the principal new bureaus of the Roosevelt Administration?
A. SEIB, EIB, RFC, NRA, FCA, FDIC, FHLB, FHA, WPA, FERA, AAA, PA, PWA, NEC, ECW, HOLC, FSRC, FACA, CSB, TVA, REA, RA, EHC, FCC, SEC, CCC, NLRB, SSB. (See footnote.)

49

Q. Do Americans use many articles made in Japan?
A. The average American home contains 24 articles made in Japan.

FOOTNOTE: Second Export-Import Bank; Export-Import Bank; Reconstruction Finance Corporation; National Recovery Administration; Farm Credit Administration; Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; Federal Home Loan Bank; Federal Housing Administration; Works Progress Administration; Federal Emergency Relief Administration; Agricultural Adjustment Administration; Petroleum Administration; Public Works Administration; National Emergency Council; Emergency Conservation Work; Home Owners’ Loan Corporation; Federal Surplus Relief Corporation; Federal Alcohol Control Administration; Central Statistical Board; Tennessee Valley Authority; Rural Electrification Administration; Resettlement Administration; Emergency Housing Corporation; Federal Communications Commission; Securities of Exchange Commission; Commodity Credit Corporation; National Labor Relations Board; Social Security Board.
Q. What wages are paid unskilled labor in China and Japan?
A. 15¢ to 35¢ per day.

Q. Will the trans-Florida Canal be completed?
A. President Roosevelt ordered the trans-Florida Canal WPA project started. He set aside $5,000,000. Canal estimated to cost $147,000,000. Congress has refused further funds.—May 16, 1936.

Q. What did General Hagood have to say about the availability of WPA funds?
A. He said: "It is harder for me to get five cents to buy a lead pencil than to get $1000 to teach hobbies to CCC boys."

Q. Has President Roosevelt made the Reconstruction Finance Corporation a self-supporting agency?
A. RFC is carrying on its books as assets $280,000,000 in relief loans to states, which were canceled by act of the 73d Congress. The corporation has lost money.

Q. Who said: "Bureaucracy is a name of evil import. Regulation is a term behind which every form of tyranny, great and small, can hide itself"?
A. John W. Davis, January 24, 1936.
THE CONSTITUTION

Q. Does the Constitution forbid unlawful search and seizure?
A. Yes.

Q. Does the Constitution permit federal industrial regulation?
A. No; only interstate commerce.

Q. Is it true that President Roosevelt asked the Congress to enact legislation regardless of doubt as to its constitutionality?
A. Yes. In a letter to the chairman of a committee considering the Guffey Coal bill.

Q. In what connection did the phrase "Gold Clause" become a byword?
A. When the government repudiated its contract to redeem federal bonds and other obligations in gold or equivalent.

Q. By what vote did the Supreme Court uphold President Roosevelt's abrogation of gold contracts?
A. 5 to 4.
Q. What political party advocates states' rights?
A. Until President Roosevelt was elected the Democratic party was known as the States' Rights party.

Q. Who charged that President Roosevelt has advocated the suppression of the ten Articles in the Bill of Rights?

Q. How many members of the Supreme Court voted the NRA unconstitutional?
A. The decision was unanimous.

Q. Who is responsible for repudiation of contracts to pay public obligations in gold of a certain weight and fineness?
A. President Roosevelt issued this order.

Q. What was the occasion on which President Roosevelt termed the NRA decision as carrying us back to the “horse-and-buggy days”?

Q. Who declared President Roosevelt's "horse-and-buggy" speech to be impudent and improper?
A. Jouett Shouse, former executive of the Democratic National Committee.
Q. When did the Supreme Court first pass on the constitutionality of legislation?
A. 1804.

Q. How did Secretary of Agriculture Wallace receive the Supreme Court decision outlawing processing taxes?
A. He said it paved the way for "the greatest legalized steal in history."

Q. How many federal laws signed by President Roosevelt have been declared invalid?
A. 10 federal laws at this writing (May 15, 1936). During the country's first 75 years, only 2 laws were held unconstitutional.

Q. Is the President sworn to preserve the Constitution?
A. By the presidential oath: "will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."
FARMING

70 Q. Has the Agriculture Department paid penitentiaries for not growing farm products?
A. Yes. $43,200 to Mississippi penitentiary and $25,500 to Arkansas penitentiary for not growing cotton.

71 Q. What was the largest amount paid to any farmer for not growing cotton in 1934?
A. Under one Arkansas contract the AAA paid $115,700.

72 Q. What was the amount of the largest corn-hog contract?
A. AAA paid one corn-hog farming company $157,020, less administrative expenses.

73 Q. Is it true the American farmer has lost his foreign market for grain corn?
A. Practically. In 1932, American farmers sold 7,886,000 bushels of grain corn abroad, but in 1935 only 177,382 bushels were sold abroad.

74 Q. Did the processing tax directly increase the selling price of corn?
A. No. When the processing tax was removed the price of corn went up.
75
Q. How much land would be necessary to grow the corn imported from foreign countries last year?
A. About 2,000,000 acres.

76
Q. How much corn was brought into this country from foreign nations in 1935?
A. 43,242,296 bushels, as compared with 106,000 bushels in 1933.

77
Q. Since President Roosevelt was inaugurated, how many pounds of meat products have been imported?
A. Over 240,000,000 pounds.

78
Q. Who said: “We must at once take the Farm Board out of speculation in wheat and cotton . . .”?
A. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in June 1932.

79
Q. How much cotton is held by the government?
A. 4,598,854 bales of 500 pounds average each.

80
Q. Has the amount of wheat the United States sells to foreign countries declined since Roosevelt came into office?
A. In 1932 this country sold 54,879,484 bushels of wheat abroad. In 1935 we sold 232,965 bushels to foreign countries. Almost the entire market for wheat has been lost. Last year we imported over 27,000,000 bushels.
Q. Has the AAA paid more than $10,000 in wheat benefits to any one person?
A. One wheat contract in Kansas paid $78,600.

Q. By what percentage have the importations of wheat increased from 1933 to 1935?
A. About 1000 times, or 100,000 per cent.

Q. How much wheat do we import from foreign countries?
A. We have just begun to import wheat in large quantities. In 1935 we imported 27,438,870 bushels.

Q. How much hay was imported into this country in 1935?
A. 67,171 tons. The tariff has been reduced on Canadian hay. In 1932 we imported only 13,858 tons.

Q. How have President Roosevelt’s reciprocal trade agreements affected the price of dairy cows?
A. Prices of dairy cattle dropped $13 a head when the Canadian Trade Agreement went into effect.

Q. Did President Roosevelt promise to keep up farm tariffs?
A. October 25, 1932, Baltimore, Mr Roosevelt said: "Of course it is absurd to talk of lowering duties on farm products."
Q. Has President Roosevelt lowered tariff rates on farm products?
A. Yes. Particularly on cattle, hay, cream, poultry, fruits and vegetables.

Q. What was the value of food products imported into the United States in 1935?
A. $641,149,474, including beverages. This was an increase of about 60 per cent over 1932.

Q. How does the value of importations of food products compare with the amount of money spent on the New Deal farm program?
A. In three years the AAA spent something over $1,000,000,000 for benefit payments to farmers. The value of food products imported into the United States in 1935 alone was $603,166,307.

Q. Have general importations from foreign countries increased under President Roosevelt?
A. In 1935 importations increased 24 per cent; exports increased 7 per cent.

Q. Did the farmers receive all the money collected in processing taxes?
A. No. Some of it went to defray the salaries of 255,000 new employees of the government.

Q. Did the AAA make benefit payments to persons who rented land?
A. Thomas D. Campbell, of Montana, received $21,136 for not growing wheat on land rented from the Crow Indians at 50¢ to $1.50 per acre.
Q. What is meant by the "Wallace seed racket"?
A. Secretary Wallace is president (1935) of the Hi-Bred Corn Company, Des Moines, Iowa. James W. Wallace, secretary. This company advertises seed corn which will increase the yield of corn per acre by 11 bushels, or more than 25 per cent. Secretary Wallace pays the farmer for plowing under 25 per cent of his corn. The farmer can take some of this money and buy Secretary Wallace's seed corn. If this seed corn does what Secretary Wallace claims, it will increase the yield of the remaining acreage by as much as would have been grown on the land plowed under. The racket is that Secretary Wallace profits by the sale of the seed corn and the farmer grows more corn on three fourths of his land than on his whole farm.

Q. Are any officials of the Department of Agriculture working for a foreign concern?
A. Oscar Johnston, a per diem adviser to Secretary Wallace, receives $25,000 a year from a British-controlled concern for managing their cotton lands in Mississippi.

Q. Who controls and operates the largest cotton plantations which received AAA benefits?
A. A British-controlled company called the Delta Land and Pine Company, operating 50,000 acres in Mississippi.

Q. How can the building of huge dams, like those of the TVA, hurt the farmer?
A. Morris Cooke, expert on soil conservation, declares that such dams take the water off the land into the big rivers, thereby contributing to dust storms.

Q. What is meant by "nationalization of land"?
A. Many claim the Roosevelt Administration intends to nationalize agriculture by ownership or control of all farmlands. 10,000,000 acres have been bought by the New Deal, and approximately one third of all farm mortgages are now in Federal Land banks.

Q. Is it true that AAA employees make any benefit payment, in any amount, without being subject to audit?
A. The law reads: "Notwithstanding any other provision of the law the action of any officer or employee in determining the amount of or in making any payment under this bill shall not be subject to review or audit except by the Secretary of Agriculture."

Q. What did Thomas Jefferson have to say about control of agriculture?
A. He said: "Were we directed from Washington when to sow, and when to reap, we should soon want bread."

100

Q. Has the government subsidized foreign farming enterprises?
A. The Delta and Pine Land Company of Scott, Mississippi, is controlled by the Fine Spinners and Doublers Association of Manchester, England. In 1934 this company received $123,747 for not growing cotton on part of its land.
Q. How many men would be required to produce the amount of cotton by which the foreign sales of cotton have been reduced under Roosevelt?
A. About 1,000,000 men to produce it in one year.

Q. What was Wallace's "hot potato"?
A. The New Deal Potato Control Act provided that no farmer could raise over 5 bushels of potatoes without a permit. Public resentment caused the law to be dropped.

Q. Could a person be jailed for a violation of the Potato Law?
A. Second offense for selling potatoes without permit or tax certificate carried jail sentence.

Q. How do importations of butter in 1935 compare with 1934?
A. About 2000 per cent more was imported in 1935 than in 1934.

Q. Who said: "It cannot be denied that in practically all the so-called reciprocity agreements, the farmers are getting the worst of the bargain"?

Q. How do the importations of butter from foreign countries in 1935 compare with 1933?
A. In 1935, 22,600,000 pounds were imported, and in 1933, 1,021,000 pounds were imported.
Q. How much fresh pork was brought into the United States from foreign countries last year?
A. 3,900,000 pounds, as compared with 538,000 pounds in 1933.

Q. Is it true that live hogs were imported into the United States while American hogs were being killed by the Department of Agriculture?
A. Yes. In 1935, 3,414,317 pounds of live hogs were imported. Also 14 hogs were imported for breeding purposes.

Q. Who said: "The slaughter of pigs on the pretense that by making meat scarce we would create a more 'abundant life,' was in truth a New Deal, and likewise an idiotic deal"?
A. Former Democratic Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri.

Q. What is the largest hog reduction contract?
A. Senator Vandenberg is authority for the statement that one Iowa farmer received $218,000 for not raising hogs on his 445-acre farm. This would be the largest.

Q. How many hogs and pigs were killed by AAA?
A. 6,188,717 pigs and 223,247 sows due to farrow, through September 1933.

Q. How many of the pigs killed by AAA were processed into meat?
A. 6,188,717 pigs killed. 1,833,650 were processed for meat. The rest were used for fertilizer, etc.
Q. Has the Roosevelt Administration proposed direct taxes on farm products?
A. After the AAA, Secretary Wallace suggested fixed processing taxes on 16 farm products, principally wheat, rye, barley, oats, corn, hogs, cattle, sheep and cotton. These were to raise $221,583,000. Secretary Morgenthau reiterated the need for this tax on April 30, 1936.

Q. Who charged that the $4,800,000,000 relief fund is a corruption fund?
A. Milo Reno, President, National Farmers' Holiday Association, November 20, 1935.

Q. If AAA benefit payments were eliminated, would farm income in 1935 under AAA control be greater or less than in 1934?
A. Such income would show a loss of about $84,000,000.

Q. If a farmer wants to be paid regularly for curtailting production of edibles under the new soil conservation law, what must he do?
A. For one thing, he can plant forest trees on crop land and be assured of receiving $5 an acre.

Q. How many bushels of flax were imported into the United States last year, and how much land would be required to grow it?
A. 17,500,000 bushels of flax were imported. This would require about 1,750,000 acres of land.
Q. How much rye was imported from foreign countries last year?
A. 9,642,523 bushels. In 1932 we exported over 1,000,000 bushels of rye.

Q. How much farmland would be required to grow the rye imported from foreign countries last year?
A. 640,000 acres at 15 bushels per acre.

Q. Was any cottonseed oil imported from foreign countries in 1935?
A. 166,687,367 pounds of cottonseed oil and 59,743,572 pounds of cottonseed were imported. In 1932 we had an export market for 55,767,449 pounds of cottonseed oil.

Q. Did loss of rental and benefit payments, as a result of the Supreme Court decision, hurt the farmer?
A. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reports that cash farm income in February 1936, when there were no subsidies, amounted to $68,000,000 more than in February 1935, when the farmers received $51,671,000 for curtailing production.

Q. Have we imported less raw cotton while cutting down our own production under AAA?
A. Cotton imports were 7,500,000 pounds more during the eight months ending March 31, 1936, than for same period in 1935.
Q. What food products do we import in large quantities from Canada?
A. Fresh pork, cattle, cheese, turnips, potatoes, cream, milk powder, fresh beef, bacon, hams and poultry.

Q. Has Wallace's Farmer been found guilty of violating Antitrust laws?
A. Wallace's Farmer and four other agricultural publications were ordered to pay $37,000 damages on charges of violating the Sherman Antitrust laws. Decision was handed down at Chicago March 28, 1936.

Q. Who owns the Hi-Bred Corn Company of Iowa, which promises to increase the farmer's yield of corn by more than 25 per cent per acre?
A. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace was president of this company (1935).

Q. Who owns the largest cotton plantation in the United States?
A. A British concern, the Fine Spinners and Doublers Association, of Manchester, England. An official of the Department of Agriculture is paid $25,000 a year to manage this farm.

Q. Did the prices of hogs, corn, cotton and wheat fall when the AAA was declared unconstitutional?
A. No. They went up.

Q. Is it true that nearly $1,000,000 was paid to one contractor in farm benefits?
A. One Puerto Rican producer was paid $961,064 for not making cane into sugar.

Q. Are all cream separators used by American farmers manufactured in this country?
A. No. 21,801 were imported last year.

Q. How do agricultural imports from foreign countries in 1935 compare with those of 1932?
A. 1935 imports were valued at $1,061,564,000. 1932 value was $642,665,000.

Q. To what extent have foreign countries displaced American cotton sales abroad?
A. W. L. Clayton, well-known Texas cotton exchange head, estimates 11,500,000 bales have been lost in last six seasons because of government interference.

Q. How many farmers were paid over $5000 for not growing cotton under 1933 contracts?
A. 227.

Q. Has Professor Rexford Tugwell declared that the United States has too many farmers?
A. August 4, 1933, he said: "There are more than enough farmers as it is. It has been estimated that when lands now unfit to till are removed from cultivation something around 2,000,000 individuals who now farm will have to be absorbed by other occupations."
Q. How much were the administrative expenses of the AAA?
A. To January 1, 1936, $78,198,265.

Q. Is it true that one tobacco planter received $41,454 under the AAA 1934 program?
A. Yes. A Florida concern.

Q. Has the AAA made any large contracts for not growing rice?
A. Yes. One California contract was for $63,768.75.

Q. How many contracts to pay more than $25,000 to rice growers have been made by the AAA?
A. 19.

Q. Has the AAA paid more than $1,000,000 in farm benefits to any one company?
A. One Florida corporation has already received $1,067,665 in sugar-cane benefits.

Q. How much was the largest check given by the AAA for not growing sugar cane?
A. The AAA drew one check for $470,313 to a Hawaiian planter. Total payments to this plantation will be $1,022,037.87.

Q. Has the Department of Agriculture loaned money to foreign corporations?
A. The Agricultural Credit Corporation loaned $250,000 to Delta Pine and Land Company, controlled by a Manchester, England, concern.
Q. Has the AAA increase in the price of farm products resulted in a decreased consumption of livestock?
A. In a single year the American public increased its consumption of fish by nearly 30 per cent. Livestock consumption declined. 324,700,032 pounds of fish were imported.

Q. How do the importations of fish from foreign countries in 1935 compare with 1934?
A. Importations increased by 38,548,612 pounds. We imported over 324,700,000 pounds last year.
FINANCE

Q. Who said: "Let us have the courage to stop borrowing to meet deficits. Stop the deficits!"?
A. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his speech delivered July 30, 1932.

Q. How much money did Congress appropriate during 1935?
A. $10,281,000,000.

Q. How much money was spent by the federal government from George Washington to Woodrow Wilson?
A. During these 124 years, James Warburg estimates $24,521,845,000. President Roosevelt has almost equaled that in three years.

Q. Who promised "a sound currency to be preserved at all hazards"?
A. That is from the Democratic platform of 1932.

Q. How much did President Roosevelt decrease the value of money in relation to gold?
A. Approximately 40 per cent.
